

Want to know what's happening with the old ADI site at St Marys?

talkStMarys

Over the next few months you can be kept informed by reading regular talkStMarys columns in your local newspapers, by visiting the talkStMarys website, or by coming along to the talkStMarys community information sessions.

The planning process for this new project is about to start and there will be plenty of opportunity for you to have an input into what will be one of the most exciting new addresses.

Did you know?

- In all, approximately 5000 homes will be built across 3 characteristic villages. Each will be a fully planned community with access to new learning, retail, recreation, employment and community facilities.
- All the Cumberland Plain Woodland listed on the register of the National Estate will be preserved within a 900 hectare Regional Park which will be Western Sydney's largest Regional Park.
- As a result of the project, 5000 new jobs will be targeted for the local community.
- A wide choice of housing will be on offer to suit a range of different lifestyles and budgets.
